ſtopp'd, and improvements in ſuch places. n. 37. Salt, who made in the coaſts of France by the Sun, n. 51. The Salt-works at Nantwich deſcribed, n. 53. and 54. Tidings of a Salt-rock in Cheſhire, n. 66. Materials for Ships offer'd from Virginia, to preſerve the Timber of England againſt a time of need, n. 93. And ſuch extraordinary Artifices, as Ingenious Travellors have communicated to us. Our aim being for the general benefit of Mankind, it is fit, we ſhould begin at our own doors, and offer an Example, or, at leaſt, follow the beſt.

Errata in Numb. 100.

Pag. 6194. l. 26. r. reaſons of Sounds. p. 6197. l. 2. r. proportion half of the double.

LONDON:

Printed by T. R. for John Martyn, Printer to the Royal Society. 1674.